Mrs. Ella F. Emerson will attend as a delegate the State Convention of the Royal Neighbors, which meets at Excelsior Springs on the 1st of March.

Buy some good things for your Sunday dinner at Market of the King's Daughters of the Christian Church at the Times office Saturday afternoon.

Rev. J. D. Smith of Doe Run was in town Monday. He expected to be transferred back to the Kansas Conference, in a few weeks, to which he belonged before coming here a year or two ago to accept the presidency of Carleton Institute.

Henry Branning and John Bentley returned home Wednesday morning from a hunt down on Little River, and as an evidence of their prowess brought a lot of wild ducks and frogs' legs—the latter being unusually large; some of them would measure nearly a foot in length.

The fourth Quarterly Conference of the First M. E. Church will be held Sunday and Tuesday. The District Superintendent, Rev. H. B. Foster, will preach Sunday morning and the Quarterly Conference will be held Tuesday afternoon after the services. You are invited.

The pupils at Elmwood Seminary entertained their friends with a silver tea Tuesday evening. Flairs were very much in evidence as a decoration, and colonial costumes were worn by a number of those present. It was quite an enjoyable affair.

City Marshal Adams, who has faithfully served the city in that capacity for several terms, announces himself as a candidate for re-election. He has made a good marshal, one of the best we have ever had, and we believe has conscientiously tried to do his duty. He solicits and will appreciate your support.

That "thirteen two-cent postage stamps were being sold for a cent and a quarter" on Washington's birthday was a joke that some of the victims didn't catch on to until it was exemplified to them. Of course the fraction was a quarter of a dollar and not of a cent, and the price holds good any old day.

John Doughty went up to Bonne Terre last week to take part in "What Happened to Jones," taking the character of Prof. Goodley, and received many compliments for his work. Mrs. Doughty accompanied him and they were the guests of Mrs. E. E. Turley. The play was given for the Provident Association and realized quite a good sum.

SACRED SONG AND MUSIC

SERVICE AT M. E. C. SOUTH.

There will be a sacred song and music service at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Prof. John C. Eisenberg of St. Louis will preside at the organ. An offering will be taken for the benefit of the choir fund. Everybody is cordially invited. The many friends of Prof. Eisenberg in Farmington will be delighted at this opportunity to hear him.

FOR SUNDAY DINNER

Buy some of the good things at the Market of the King's Daughters of the Christian Church at the Times office Saturday afternoon, February 25th.

Have your watch repaired—Tetley's is the place.

PARSONS' BAND CONCERT.

Despite the very inclement weather Saturday night the Opera House was filled with an audience that gave a hearty greeting to the Bonne Terre Band, under the able leadership of Mr. R. R. S. Parsons. The following program was given: The Elephant March—J. Ord Hume. Grand Tarentelle—Stephen Huller. Waltz—"Wedding of the Winds"—Jno. T. Hall. Trombone Duet—"Nid and Nod"—Polka—W. E. Barnes; Messrs. L. and M. Barrow. Overture—"Semiramide"—G. Rossini. March—"Tannhauser"—Wagner. Selections from "Madame Sherry"—Karl Hoschna. Saxophone Quartet—Selected; Messrs. Barrow, Norwine, Barrow and Howard. Overture—"Cyrano"—Chr. Bach. Medley Overture—"War Songs"—L. P. Laurendeau.

Many of the numbers were encored, the selections from "Madame Sherry" being a particular favorite. The trombone duet and saxophone quartet were both good numbers and received a hearty encore. Mr. Parsons may well be proud of the band which responds so readily to every movement of his baton. The finest selection on the program was Rossini's "Semiramide," for it seemed to embrace every style of music, several parts being particularly beautiful. The audience was much gratified at the band's rendition of "Dixie." The closing selection was a medley of "War Songs," finely given, leaving the audience in a happy humor, saying the Bonne Terre Band was one for all St. Francois county to be proud of.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

CELEBRATED WITH PARTY.

Emmett Swink, Jr., invited his young friends to come out and help celebrate Washington's Birthday Wednesday evening. The house was appropriately decorated in red, white and blue. Mrs. Florence Walker assisted in receiving her brother's guests. Many games were indulged in and the souvenirs were cherry trees, cocked hats and hatchets, and all had a merry time. The refreshments were in keeping with the day. The guests were Misses May Cover, Pauline Ryington, Agnes and Reba Haille, Edna Geer, Milla Cloud, Helen and Lora Lee Murrill, Marguerite Klein, Mildred McKinney, Esther Gale, Frances Flowers, Alta and Dorothy Ozoria, Nettie Delaney, Martha McCormick, Emily Huff, and Messrs. Harold Houchins, Linn Dobbins, Hugh Mayberry, Paul Jones, Johnnie Robinson, Burdine Crow, Lawrence Smith, Malcolm Burgess, Vernon Taylor, Roy Johnson, Leslie Mitchell, Lionel Tetley, Elliott Klein, Will Ashburn, Homer Clay, Philip Cole, Carl Klein, George Gleissing and Raymond Nixon.

Our old friend, F. Kath of Pilot Knob, had his left arm jerked out of the socket by his horse last Monday shortly after noon. Mr. Kath was unhitching the horse, and had part of the harness around his arm, when the animal gave a jerk. We are glad to say Mr. Kath is doing very well and promises to suffer no permanent injury from his mishap.—Ironton Register.

IN THE LEAD BELT.

The trouble in the Lead Belt growing out of the employment of foreigners in the mines has been quieted in a measure by the Doe Run Lead Company agreeing to use the foreigners only as shovelers in the mines. This is work which it is said the American miners are loth to do, and is given as one of the excuses for bringing in foreigners. What arrangements the other companies have made, if any, to keep down friction between the American and foreign miners, we have not heard. It is said that the Federal, the National and the Desloge companies employ a larger per centage of foreigners than the Doe Run. The miners are organizing, several meetings of the miners' local having been held the past two weeks at Flat River and Desloge at which many applications for membership were made. Little attention has been paid to the union by miners in the Lead Belt for several years, but from the new interest that has been aroused it is thought that the miners will soon be pretty thoroughly organized throughout the lead district.

FARMINGTON BAND TO GIVE CONCERT MARCH 7.

The Farmington Brass and Reed Band will give a concert at the Opera House on Thursday, March 7th. They will be assisted by Mrs. Fannie Shaw, violin soloist; Miss Schaefer of Carleton Institute and Miss Slane of Elmwood Seminary, readers; Mrs. Edward C. Barroll and Miss Hangan of Elmwood Seminary, vocalists, and others. From the array of recognized talent it promises to prove a most enjoyable and delightful entertainment. The object of the concert is to raise funds to enable the band to hold its instructor over for another season, and our people ought to encourage our home band by giving them an overflowing house.

CASH MEAT MARKET

OUR PREDICTION

That there was a large trade in Farmington and vicinity which would welcome the opportunity to purchase meat supplies at the lowest cost proved true; in fact, beyond our expectations.

OUR POLICY

to sell meat of quality—not service—is what careful buyers like. These prices may look good to you:

Lard	12c
Pork Chops	13c to 15c
Beefsteaks	11c to 16c

We would appreciate it if you would weigh your supplies and see that you get what you paid for. It pays to buy for cash.

No Delivery. No Charges.

DESLOGE RESTAURANT BURNED

The Claywell restaurant at Desloge was destroyed by fire last Saturday. The kitchen stove exploded, filling the kitchen with flames and the front part of the building so densely with smoke that it was next to impossible for anyone to enter to save anything. The Sun says Mr. Claywell had $275 insurance on his household goods, which only partly covered his loss, as everything was burned except the clothes they had on.
